International headquarters sent out a memo, with the Impressions of Key Leaders on The Holy Wedding of Yeon Jin Nim and Jeung Jin Nim. Their statements are a wonderful testimony to Heavenly Parent's and True Parents' Victory in regard of the Providence of the Blessing and Salvation of all Humankind.

"Thank you for opening the final, perfected and conclusive gates for the salvation of all humankind

This day, 8.19 on the heavenly calendar in the second year of Cheon Il Guk (September 12, 2014), is truly a historic day. The dream and ideal of our Heavenly Parent, which He envisioned even before the time of Creation, has finally been perfected and concluded. Now, anybody may accompany, join and inherit God's providence for salvation. I once again offer my deepest appreciation for bestowing this grace upon humankind..."

"True Father is the alpha, beginning and commencement of the completion of the providence; True Mother is the omega, end, and conclusion of the completion of providence. When I think about this grace and blessing, I wonder, How could True Parents, who love all seven billion people of this world and who have even brought salvation to our ancestors in the spirit world, ever erect barriers to the Blessing? The time is ripe, the time has come. Consequently, they are not simply giving the Blessing beyond the visible barriers and national borders but are also breaking down the barriers to love. When we unite with True Parents' love and are reborn through their words, we can be blessed to anybody. I believe that this is what True Parents have shown us through the blessings of their two daughters from their own family. When I think about this I realize it is a tremendous glory and something to be grateful of..."
