[Interview of Moon Kook-jin, Chairman of Tongil Group]

It is a succession of schedules flying back and forth from Korea to the US. His tight schedule convinces us that the mind rules over the body. When I met him at Tongil Group chairman's office right after the presidential election at the end of last year, he looked very tired from meetings and approvals that continued all day long. He eluded my expectation of at least a forced smile in meeting a reporter because he was an American style. He was so outspoken with frank expressions that it rather embarrassed the reporter. His sincerity showed itself even in contrastive topics between the aura when he referred to national security and lighthearted mood when he said he likes Tteokbokki (Korean-style seasoned bar rice cake). The cover of Economy Journal magazine features a large portrait of Moon Kook-jin, Chairman of Tongil Group, smiling. The magazine title "ECONOMY JOURNAL" is at the top in large red letters. The issue date "2013 01" and website "www.econoj.com" are in the top right. The main headline is "Analysts Report Analysts가 본 2013년 한국경제". Below it is "Cover Story I 대한민국의 비전 '강한 대한민국'에 있다" by Moon Kook-jin. There are two smaller articles: "Manufacturing I 반도체 특수금속 분야의 국산화 견인" by Lee Woo-ho and "Cover Story II 첫 여성대통령의 시대 무엇을 해야 할 것인가" by Park Geun-hye. At the bottom left, it says "Holy War DISPUT BETWEEN PALESTINE AND ISRAEL".
