

To those Freshmen (Juniors), raise your hands, how many times have you seen Father? (Once). When Father looks around he sees so many sisters here now. Is it difficult or easy to study here at the Seminary? (Difficult). What kind of dreams do you have? As American young people what kinds of things do you long for? In the beginning your dreams or visions are big ones and then they get smaller and smaller. Yes? (No). What are the best dreams that you have had? (About the Kingdom of Heaven on earth). Don't you have dreams about yourself - about your spouses? (Laughter).

Well anyway, what is the ideal of creation - the four-position foundation. Now what good will it do in the future if you are so busy maintaining a family and you wanted to aspire to be President? Why is your spouse so important? Why are your children so important? Yes, to learn about love. Therefore, the best dream is a dream about love.

What is a saint? Saints are those who love beyond the boundary of themselves, a family, or their country - they are also dedicated to the invisible world. If you too live for the sake of the whole world you will benefit history and future generations. Saints are connected both internally and externally with love. They are the ones who see the value in the spiritual world, yet they are also willing to go beyond the boundary of a foreign country.

How do we learn to become faithful sons and daughters? What is the textbook we should use for this education? For men the textbook to learn about love and how to be faithful is women; and for women, it is men. Also you learn through your sons and daughters. If you love your parents the same as you love your own children then you will have true filial piety. It will take 3 generations and then there will be a connection representing the entire world. So if you love your parents as much as you do your sons and daughters (including all of your cousins, aunts, uncles, etc.) then you will come to have the respect of your entire clan. But you must have a clear purpose. Why? By doing that, by loving your family you learn to love your clan, so then in turn you can love your country. Your country then is only a training ground for loving the entire world, and then, for loving the spiritual world.

→ What does the spiritual world have to do with you? Why does Father keep teaching you these things so much? There are many Americans that think that is not necessary for their life to be so complicated. They say that they just want to lead a simple life: "I just want to love my husband (or my wife), even having children is too much trouble." They want to love a quiet life in the country, and not get involved in all the complicated things of the community, the nation or the world. You might feel the same way at times - you might ask, "Why do I have to go through 2 or 3 years in the Seminary?"

But if you understand the importance of your life here on earth and how it will affect your eternal life in the spiritual world, it can be compared with the way that your blood circulates around in your body: if you have true love from having given and sacrificed and served, then you can go anywhere you want to in the spiritual world. Haven't you ever wanted to have the most beautiful clothes like a King and go anywhere you wanted? Haven't you wanted to ride a fast horse, or drive a Lincoln Continental and go anywhere? After you accomplish the long path of attaining true love, then you can have these things, not just here but in the spiritual world.] Even if you had an ugly wife, through true love the most ugly person becomes so beautiful. That's how it is in the spiritual world; that's why you are doing these things here. If you keep practicing true love you will shoot straight ahead like a bullet. Those who do not practice or learn true love, when they come to the spiritual world, how miserable they will be!

X angelina
 → So we are living and practicing now for that eternal world. If you attain that true love, then you will need nothing more in the spiritual world; everything will already "bow down" to you. You will "shoot like a bullet of love;" you will keep on going, hitting the bull's eye all the time. When Rev. Moon shoots a bullet of love to someone then that bullet ricochets and bounces off that person and then goes on to someone else, and someone else, etc.

Those who were matched or engaged this last time raise your hands. Why did Father have that matching? It is because there is no way that Father wants you to be alone. He wants you, regardless of the waiting and the time it takes, to have spouses and children. What if you were married for 3 or 4 years and for some reason there were no children, or if you were getting to the age where you could no longer have a child, wouldn't you really become desperate just to have one child? Father knows these things. But what about the matter of loving your country? Which direction does a saint go? Before they go toward the direction of just loving their own families they go toward the whole world.

You must first experience the most painful kinds of situations in serving and giving in the family setting before you can be called faithful (filial) sons and daughters. So in your family you must work harder, sleep less, and you must also be like the most zealous patriot and be willing to bear the most sorrow for your country. And how many terrible and sorrowful things you have in this country! In big cities like New York there are so many prostitutes, drug addicts, lost and uncared-for old people on the streets, so many young prisoners, etc. But you could say, "What does all that have to do with me?" But if each one of you made a ten-year plan to work on making those kinds of tragic situations be taken care of or go away, then you can become a saint. To be saints you have to experience the same pains and sorrows as the suffering people in the world; you have to know the heart of those that have hunger, oppression, confinement in prison, and even the pain of losing your family.

If Rev. Moon goes the path of a saint, he has to be prepared to go that path of pain also, even losing you, giving up his country of Korea; to lose these things for the sake of the world. But if you never complained and had the heart of being truly grateful, and if you go the path and follow in that kind of sorrow and pain, then you will go the same place in the spiritual world as Father. Take Ronald Reagan's family, for instance, they can all just walk into the White House, even though they do not actually have an official position. Even those who worked so hard throughout his presidential campaign and the ones in the past who have supported and helped him, can now become his staff members. It is the same way in religion - if you gain the true love of the entire world it is more valuable than the love of your country, or if you gained the love of a country, it is more valuable than even the love of your family or clan.

So this is why that for the sake of the world we must even sacrifice our families, our clans, our nations, etc. For instance, if Father didn't have a family but he still worked hard for the nation or the world then many people would want to become his family. So do you understand this principle? How do you know it isn't wrong? You just grow to be a "huge tree of love" - once people are attached to that tree they never want to leave it or let go. Have you watched a bee with honey? After they get their "stinger" into the honey, they don't want to pull it out, even if you touch or pull off the bee their stingers still stay in the honey! Father used to watch many bees like this when he was a boy; don't you see that when human beings or mankind get a taste of true love that they do the same thing?

Father knows more than anybody else about the existence of that kind of spiritual world. That's why Father has so much ambition, why he is a man of so many visions and dreams for the future; he knows the way and how to attain true love. Father is so ready to put you into a situation of suffering for the sake of others because he has confidence that that is the way to go. Father knows that in the spiritual world that love is everything; no matter which society you enter into, in the spiritual world if you have true love then you become instantly harmonious. Even though you may not completely understand now, Father knows that there is that kind of situation there in the spiritual world where love is great! You must be desperate to work for, plan for and be determined to find that kind of authority of love that will last eternally.

So now it's hard to study in the Seminary for you, isn't it? (Yes, Father). But how wonderful it is to see that this is the "ground" or foundation for you to build a big factory of love in the world. All for the sake of love you are learning many things: church history, homiletics, even karate (Won Hwa Do). If it's for the sake of love you could even go "disco dancing", or maybe drinking wine or whiskey; actually if you already know of true love it's not so terrible because you are already intoxicated! (Laughter). If you want to do something very badly and someone of authority says "Stop!" Then you still want to do it. But if for the sake of love someone asks you to stop, then there is no problem, you will stop.

If you were to ask your eye, "What is your dream?", then what would your eye answer, wouldn't it be, "Love." It doesn't matter if you have blue eyes or black eyes. Well then, what kind of dream do you have? Maybe you will answer, "After I get blessed I want to have a honeymoon!" Ah, see, there's "moon" in it! (Laughter). Father longs for and wishes that everyone would join us just for the sake of love. So what kind of dream do you have? (Love dream!!) For just young people or old people too? (Everyone). Suppose you had two bags and you wanted to put in your mind in one bag and true love in the other, which bag would have to be the largest? (The bag of love). Yes, the more that gets in the "bag of love" and because it can just stay there peacefully, it can increase and increase. The bag that holds the mind would always be fighting and in conflict.

We can "conquer and "subjugate" by love, isn't that wonderful? Father doesn't want that, do you want that? (Yes!) Well then if you can "conquer" everything by love and if you win then maybe Father will yield to you. That's why when parents grow old they want to give everything to their children - this is authority of love. God would never regret it if He gives you this entire world out of love; if like yeast (when it makes the bread get bigger and bigger) you can increase love, wouldn't God be happy? So Father is throwing "yeast" to you and telling you to grow more. So don't you understand; Father has been telling you to witness, to go fundraising, to do Home Church over and over again. It is because all the people you touch will receive some "yeast" also. Father has already gone the course of buying so many clothes, meals, and houses for others - if you inject that kind of love and give and serve others, then you can spread the same "yeast."

In your life of faith you must witness to others; why do you think you are studying? So that you can be better prepared to reach others! So just realize that just one more page of the book you are studying late at night will be one more page for you to reach up to heaven. An expression of love can be in many different ways: in writing songs, in poems, in serving, there are many ways you can express love. So why are you studying so many different kinds of things? For the bigger love you will reach; people are even willing to die for the sake of a bigger love.

How much more wonderful it is if this is not a dream and Father is telling you the truth. From your behavior you want to see Father more than even renowned scholars who come here - why? Because of true love. It doesn't really matter what others say against Father - it doesn't bother him - he already has so much love and the love of God. Why is that "love dream" so necessary? Because beyond distance and time everything will come to you in the spiritual world if you have true love, but you must practice that on earth. So having a family of your own is going through a "training course." Learning to love, raise up, harmonize and take care of your spouse, your children, your in-laws, your aunts, uncles, and cousins is not easy; it is very, very difficult; but it is absolutely necessary for you to develop the heart of true love.

Who knows love best? There will be a time when all of America will want to "get hold of a Moonie" - a Moonie will never complain, will serve and have love, and if you are working the President of your company will be drawn to you by love. People will say, "Even if you don't like me, I want to be with you." Even God will not care so much about fancy manners and sophistication and will want to be with you if you have love. Even if you took a nap in the Heavenly Palace, God would accept you if you had such strong love. (Laughter). If you would wear the glasses of love there would be nothing that you would see that would not be beautiful - or if you wore a nose of love then everything would smell beautiful.

So you must express your love towards your studies and toward all the things involved in this Seminary. If you see paint peeling off a wall, it needs to be fixed, it needs care and a loving hand. One thing that Mr. Kim could do would be to divide the entire school into many sections and you would be responsible for your section. But this is your school and you must also learn to love the entire building.

Have you Juniors been carp fishing or boat riding yet? Have you seen our boats that we are building? You should have several here at Barrytown. (Clapping). But everyday you would have to fundraise for 2 hours to maintain those boats. If they break down they need to be repaired.

Raise your hands, those who miss your fiancées? How do you miss them, in a fallen or principled way? Unless you become ideal people, where is the ideal love? An ideal person always follows and is hungry for God's true love.

True love is never an end in itself; it is always for a purpose beyond yourself, of something bigger. People want to become ideal people because of love - but only after you have loved all of mankind can you be the "best." If you feel that you want to become "the best" and you only sit tight and do nothing, then you will never be the best. Only if you move and go out and love the world, and then come back will you be recognized as "the best."

Can you conquer the world and win people like Hitler did? No, you can only be the "best one" through "conquering" with true love. If Father "conquers" you, do you feel happy? (Yes!) Of course, if that kind of love is strong enough you feel all right. If you can "conquer" your husband or wife through love, isn't that all right? The world calls Rev. Moon a "millionaire" but even though you see Father wearing the same suit many times the only thing that Father wants is the power of true love.

Then let us all have a dream now and for the future of true love. Those necklaces that you sisters are wearing, make them necklaces of true love. People will eventually want to "save you" and help you and rescue you if you sacrifice and work hard and get yourselves persecuted and in a difficult position. The smallest effort never gets lost, even though it takes time. Try this way of true love for ten years and see what happens - there will be many people who will want to come to know you. Love goes in circles and never stops and never ceases. The whole universe someday will want to go the path of love. How excited you will be when God permeates inside you!

All of this talk about the future in the spiritual world may seem to be too "dream-like" or unreal, but I want to insure you that it is all reality. To do the work for this immense spiritual world I am doing all that I do, and that is why you are doing the same. Just like the caterpillar's course: from a cocoon into a beautiful butterfly; it's hard to believe. But won't God certainly make you into what you are dreaming? Doesn't God care enough about you to give you what you long for, what you want to be? But what Father is teaching you here on earth is the training, the preparation; then someday like Sakeda (?), the little boy in the story, you too can sing and dance and fly.

If you have love then everyone will want to be with you - everyone wants to stay with love - like your clothes and your socks even if you were sweaty and smelly. You want Father to stay to have dinner, even stay overnight, yes? Why? (Because of love). Love can be cold and strict, and can be warm at times; always after parting we will meet again, so departing is not so bad. Well, the condition now of Mother is very heavy, so if I stay overnight how will Mother feel? Actually, tonight I had a plan to take Mother out for a Chinese dinner, but David Kim changed my plans! (Applaud). But Mother always understands these things so quickly and goes beyond sad feelings; Father is so happy about that, love is good for solving everything.

Have a good dream (kum). Father has to say "goodbye."
