Many people thought that once I was put into Danbury, it would be the end of Reverend Moon and the Unification Church, but they were totally wrong.

In a way, I went to Danbury to indemnify the failure of America, especially President Nixon's and Carter's failures. Someone has to pay the price for such failure before God.

If President Nixon had not failed during the early 1970's and he had sailed smoothly through that difficult period, there would have been no setback.

The dispensational victory could have gone forward all the way to the end.

However, because of Nixon's and Carter's failures, Satan could get a hook upon Reverend Moon and demand that I set another condition. Otherwise, I could not have gone on to another stage of the dispensation.
