축

The first world culture and sports festival, which is being held during the 47th year since I began proclaiming the Unification Principle, is a holy celebration. It is an occasion to let the entire world see, and to offer to God, the harvest reaped from the seeds I have sown and nurtured for the liberation of God and humanity and for the realization of world peace.

Everything I have strived to achieve during my life has been for the purpose of confirming the face that all people in the world are brothers and sisters before God, our common Parent.

When we center on God, our common ties as members of the global family transcend our differences based on race, nationality and international boundaries.
