The Family Project

The Family Project is here to help you make 2023 a meaningful year for your family with curated intentional activities that will encourage connection and growth.

How it works

- Each month consists of weekly activities that you can download on the website or receive via email
- Fit the activities to your lifestyle – do it at your own pace and in your own creative way
- If you ever need to skip an activity, no problem! You know your family best food for thought

Stage of Exploration—18 months to 3 years

With a secure attachment and connection to parents, the child's energy turns to exploring the world around them. This stage is all about answering the questions, "Who are you?" and "What is this?" An important developmental part of this stage is learning that they are a distinct being, separate from their parents.
