

This Week in History (February 1-7)

Seog Byung Kim
February 3, 2015

Coronation of True Parents as the King and Queen of World Peace (2004.12.13 Washington D.C.)

Religious leaders, the Able-type, and political leaders, the Cain-type, came together to Marriot Hotel, Washington D.C. on December 13, 2004 for 'Coronation of True Parents as the King and Queen of World Peace,' an event held to coronate True Parents as the King and Queen of peace. True Father gave 3,400 people who participated in the event that day a speech with a title of 'Our Mission in the Last Days of Providential History.' He emphasized in this speech that "heavenly fortune is with us," and that "we now have the opportunity to establish our common homeland that will also be Heaven's homeland." (Courtesy of the History Compilation Committee)

Launching of Segye Ilbo (1989.02.01, Seoul, Korea)

Segye Ilbo was launched on February 1, 1989 in Yongsan, Seoul. Around 1,000 leaders from political and academic world came to participate in the ceremony to commemorate the launching. True Father gave the company three missions: become the paper which ushers in the unification of Korea, elevate the spirit of Korean people, and realize the world of righteousness. True Father then gave the company motto, 'Love Heaven, love people, and love nation,' and gave a speech in which he asked Segye Ilbo to become a media institution that can influence not only Korea but the world. 1.2 million copies of the first print was published which had 16 pages. After 26 years, Segye Ilbo has become one of the Korean people's righteous newspapers. (Courtesy of the History Compilation Committee)

Offering ceremony of Cheongshim International Hospital (1989.02.05, Chung Pyung, Gyeonggido province, Korea)

A ceremony was held to offer Cheongshim International Hospital to Heaven on February 5, 2003. The construction began in September 2000 and it was finished after two years and five months. True Parents bestowed on the hospital a motto, 'Perfection of unification with heavenly character is possible through united mind and spirit.' Through her congratulatory remarks, True Mother said 'The Chung Pyung Training Center of Heaven and Earth and the Cheongshim International Hospital are the homeland for the hearts of Unification families around the world.' Cheongshim International Hospital deals both in western and oriental medicines. Located in middle of mountains with beautiful sceneries, the hospital serves its patients with cutting-edge medical equipment. (Courtesy of the History Compilation Committee)

