We held an event to celebrate the International Women's Day on March 8th, 2017, in WFP-Haiti center. We're so glad that over 80 people including the students of literacy classes of WFP-Haiti participated at this event.

As a special guest, we invited three General Director of public office who participated in the Caribbean GWPN which was held in the Dominican Republic last autumn. And they gave encouragement speeches for the participants. And participants were excited to be part of this event.

WFP-Haiti have been promoted in literacy education project since 2008, and this time we were able to welcome the Director of State for Literacy of Education Ministry of Haiti.

During the event 20 excellent students awarded by special certificate by the director of state for Literacy Education.

Also, a representative from a student gave a reading in front of the guests and showed that her reading improved.

During the event WFP-HAITI appointed two new ambassadors for peace and the president of WFP-HAITI handed the certificate to the two guests.

They were pleased saying they as an Ambassador for Peace will do their utmost efforts to improve the position and development of women, in creating a good nation.
