

UPF-Montreal Canada: Presentation on Leticia Bulotano Wheeler's Legacy

Moonshik Kim
March 20, 2017

Montreal, Canada—UPF-Montreal held a meeting on March 20, 2017 featuring a presentation by author Elenita Belgica, who recently wrote a book honoring a community activist in Montreal, Leticia Bulotano Wheeler. The title of the book is “Leticia Bulotano Wheeler's Legacy: A World of Diversity.”

Ms. Belgica spoke about Ms. Bulotano’s tremendous dedication to promoting art and culture as a path to develop a better understanding of and relations with different cultural groups in Montreal and Canada. The meeting was well attended and also included a report by UPF-Canada Secretary General Mr. Franco Famularo on the recent activities of UPF International.

