

Launch of the Japan Chapter of IAPP

(November, 2016 Tokyo, Japan)

The Japanese chapter of the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace was launched in Tokyo, Japan, during the International Leadership Conference held from November 16-17, 2016, with the support of the Japan Institute for Peace Policies (IPP). The theme of the International Leadership Conference was "Japan's Choice in a Turbulent World." Among the 300 guests in attendance were current Japanese parliamentarians, diplomats, academics, religious, NGO and youth leaders, media personalities and so on. The conference addressed a wide range of global issues, including issues relating to Northeast Asia, relations with the US, Europe and Russia and issues in the Middle East. Based Organizations."
