

Blessed Family Seminar: Peace Starts With Me, My Relationships, My Calling

Rafael Guignard

April 3, 2020

Saturday 11th April – Monday 13th April

In collaboration with the EUME Blessed Family Department

Do you believe in living an ideal life and building an ideal world? But whenever you look at the reality today you feel so far away and overwhelmed that you don't know where to start? Well, you are not alone, and in the upcoming "Peace Starts With Me" Online Workshop I am going to share the philosophy and tools that have helped me and many others to create a harmonious and compelling Life Vision that gives you the beliefs and drive to build the life and have the impact you have always wanted.

My name is Rafael Guignard, I am a 34 year old certified Life and performance coach. I am also a youth leader and community pastor in France. I have been a table tennis player and coach on a national level for the past 10 years. But most importantly I have been blessed to my wonderful wife, Domila Guignard, for the past 15 years and we have 3 young children.

Deep inside my heart, I have always desired to live a successful and fulfilling life in all areas, just as God and True Parents want us to live. I wanted to be physically, intellectually, emotionally and spiritually fulfilled while building a loving family and contributing to a better world. But many times I found myself feeling overwhelmed and actually very far from my ideals. I experienced success in many different areas, but often separately from, and unfortunately at the sacrifice and expense of, other important areas. Three years ago, when I started again to focus very strongly on my personal growth, I could see that improving myself was actually positively impacting every other aspect of my life. I started to have hope and believed again that it was possible to live a harmonious life according to the Three Great Blessings. The greatest breakthrough came when I started to create a future life vision by looking deep into my heart and imagining that everything that I truly want to be, do or have is really possible, and a harmonious life in all areas is really possible if I decide to design it in this way. I suddenly became a true co-creator of my life. I realised that my current reality was not aligned with that vision and started to make changes towards this new vision. Suddenly, I started living in a state like the vision was already there and felt guided and blessed on my path. I was guided to deeply explore my life in 12 different categories according to the Three Great Blessings and improve each single one of them by making them work together.

If you want to create an inspiring and harmonious life vision, live with a stronger purpose and build the habits that will get you there, I invite you to join the "Peace Starts With Me" Online Workshop from April 11th to 13th by filling in this application form:
