Hyoieong Testimony - Chieko Sasamoto

During the recent celebration of the 59th Day of All True Things and the 67th Anniversary of the Founding of HWA-UWC, a very moving testimony was shared by Chieko Sasamoto from Japan. Mrs Sasamoto's husband was a missionary in Tanzania in 1980, but was tragically killed at the age of 30 by those who opposed our movement at the time. Masaki Sasamoto's final words were nothing short of inspirational:

"Even though I may die alone in Africa, far away from my parents, relatives and homeland, I have no sorrow as I am a victor. Why would I be afraid of that when I have revealed the way of Heaven, which is the way of love?"
