| What is Peace Road? |

As we prepare for the Peace Road UK Coast-to-Coast walk along Hadrian's Wall, we look back at the history of the Peace Road project and how it began.

Throughout the course of recorded history, humanity has built roads. From the Silk Road, which stretched from Europe to China, to the Roman road system which allowed the Roman legions to create a vast empire known across the world. The opportunities and connections that roads allow for are fundamental in creating a unified world.

Rev. Sun Myung Moon pioneered the idea of a "Peace Road". His vision was that of an international highway that physically connects people from across the world together.
