UK Communities Celebrate True Children's Day!

Of all the holy days traditionally celebrated in the Unificationist community, True Children's Day occupies an understandably special place in the memories of those who grew up in the community. New memories were created last weekend with a series of celebrations in communities around the country. Measures were in place to host Covid-secure events, but all the stops were pulled out to deliver memorable occasions for young and old alike, all of whom are indeed Heavenly Parent's precious children.
