For most parents, the task of matching their children is very challenging. This webinar series is designed to support and help parents in this precious task given to them by our True Parents. We will cover a wide range of helpful topics and give opportunities to ask questions.

Invited are:

- all parents who are preparing to match/bless their child
- BFD staff members and matching supporters

If you have any questions about the webinar, please contact us at: bfdeume@gmail.com

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Parents Matching Education - webinar series

Which topics are you interested in?

When is my child ready for matching?

When should we, as parents, start to talk with our children in order to prepare them for Matching and Blessing?

How do we know when our child is mature enough to be able to receive the Blessing?

How do we, as parents, find a match and what do we have to consider in relation to our child?

What can a parent do to support their child in a matching process?

At what point in the matching process should parents take a step back and at what point does the main responsibility lie with their child (candidate)?

What blockages can happen which can prevent us from finding the right match?
