Livingstone House: A Spiritual Weekend

This weekend, on the 7th and 8th of October, a HJ CheonBo Special event took place in Livingstone House.

We had a wonderful and unforgettable weekend with the HJ CheonBo Special event that kicked off with a Music Festival on Saturday. It was a joy to see 161 brothers and sisters gather in person at Livingstone House, and to welcome over 99 members who joined us online via Zoom, going up to a total of over 170 participants during the vigil prayer.

We felt the presence and love of God and our ancestors throughout the weekend, as we were uplifted by the amazing music and Chanyang sessions offered by the talented band and team. On Saturday, we also had some fun and excitement with a raffle that gave brothers and sisters a chance to win some lovely gifts from the EUME CheonBo team – such as gift cards, teas, coffees, chocolates and even toys.

We are already looking forward to the next CheonBo event, which we hope will be an opportunity to invite and inspire many more people to come. We are deeply grateful to all the volunteers and staff who made this event possible.

Livingstone House has also recently been given the green light to start a new "Young adults spiritual community" where the building will return to its original purpose as a haven for young members to study, form life-long bonds and foster a culture of creativity under our True Parents.
