

FFWPU UK: Seonghwa Caring Ministry Information Evening

Michael Balcomb
November 2, 2023

Do you have any questions on how to prepare for the Seonghwa of a loved one or your own? Are you looking for more support to cope with your grief? Are you wondering what to say or how to care for members who have been bereaved? Do you have any questions about the Won Jeon at the Holy Oak Memorial Woodland, or do you have any other questions?

The Seonghwa Caring Ministry would like to invite you to an information evening when we will attempt to answer your questions. This session will take place online on Friday 17 November at 7.30pm.

When? Friday 17 November at 7.30pm

Where? Zoom, link will be sent soon. Sign up now!

We will have two speakers:

Margoth Tove Kalstad joined our church in 1978. She has worked in psychiatric hospitals, became a Gestalt psychotherapist and has also experience volunteering on a suicide prevention hotline. She has conducted bereavement groups and wants to offer her professional approach and faith-based support for our members.

Kumiko Large will introduce you to the Holy Oak Memorial Woodland, the work that is going on there and she is ready to answer any questions.

There will be plenty of time afterwards for your questions.

For more information and to confirm you are coming please email us at seonghwa@ffwpu.org.uk. A zoom link will be provided closer to the time.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

The Seonghwa Caring Ministry team
