Faith, Family and Community: How Different Traditions Enrich Our Lives and Communities

Join us for an informal evening of presentations and discussion on how different faith traditions and values shape our family life and contribute to our social well-being. Learn from speakers of various religious backgrounds and perspectives, and share your own experiences and insights. Explore the benefits and challenges of living in a diverse and pluralistic society, and how we can foster mutual respect and harmony among different faith communities.

This event is open to anyone who is interested in learning more about the role of faith and family in our modern world. Refreshments will be provided. We hope to see you there!

This event is organised in conjunction with partner organisations, UPF, MMI and WFWP.

When? Thu, 16 Nov 2023 18:00 - 20:00 GMT
