I would like to express my deep gratitude for your work and commitment to CheonBo Providence. I like to be part of the Chanyang Yeoksa Session. I know that during these sessions we can liberate a lot of resentful spirits. This time both Chanyang Yeoksa sessions were very special. I could not sing all the time, because I felt like I was running out of the air. I had to take a few deep breaths to continue singing. It is very difficult to clap, sing and think and analyse the situation at the same time. One thought came to my mind, however. When I sent resentful spirits out of my body, empty space remains and I can fill it up this place with love, compassion and peace. Each time I had to breathe deeply. I invited God's love in order to fill up myself. After each Chanyang Yeoksa session I had a lot of warm feelings. Just before the Ancestor liberation ceremony Rev. Krebsz came to me, he put his hands over my head and started ansu on me. I started coughing very hard and after a while I felt something jump out of my mouth. The cough disappeared.

(Second part)

One day after the Cheon Bo event I experienced what does it mean erasing the memory (past record of sin) actually. Because I was very busy during the CheonBo event and I did not have time to focus on Hyojeong Offering Paper, but when I realized what a great grace it was to bring the Ancestors in the last moment to the Hyojeong Offering Ceremony for the Inheritance of Heavenly Fortune. I did not think about myself in that time. What I have been carrying in my heart for a long time was a feeling of guilt. We are helping a refugee family who are in a very difficult situation and I constantly felt guilty that I couldn't do more. When I thought about them, I felt physical pain in my heart. I couldn't cope with it, I even talked to a psychologist. But after the Hyojeong Offering Ceremony, I met one person from that (refugee) Family and I feel completely different. I feel sympathy, compassion, and the guilt disappeared. Once again, I would like to express my gratitude to our Heavenly Father and Heavenly Mother to our True Parents, to Jesus and everyone who works for this CheonBo providence.

As a host and be part of the staff, it was not easy for me to participate in the Cheanyang Yeoksa session on the second day of the CheonBo event. I had so many responsibilities, so I decided not to participate in the Chanyang Session. I was working in the kitchen preparing lunch for the participants and I was in rush and under pressure to make things on time.

After 20 minutes that the Chanyang Yeoksa had started, I heard a voice in my heart, calling me: please come for Chanyang Yeoksa session. So, I changed my mind and went to the main hall to participate into the Chanyang Session. The atmosphere in the main hall was great. The room was filled with 100 people who sang and clapped, led by the Chanyang Team, who radiated with incredible energy and love. As soon as I sat down and started clapping, Rev. Moon In Pyo came up to me and started ansu on my head. This helped me to enter into a deep prayer and have spiritual experience. This time my spiritual experience was completely different than usual. Since my wife and I were on a duty to prepare the Training Center and to host the CheonBo Branch Staff, and the Chanyang Team and take care of the participants, as well and cook for everyone. I felt very exhausted, low in energy, and full of physical pain. While clapping, I opened my spiritual senses and found myself in the womb of True Mother.

(Second part)

At first, I noticed how fast my heart was beating. I was insecure, overwhelmed, anxious and tired. Then I heard True Mother's heart beating slowly but deeply and strongly. This heartbeat was very calming and soothing. Then my heart beat went slowly down and my breathing synchronized with the breath of True Mother. I realized that I was part of True Mother and that I was connected to her by an umbilical cord. It was a beautiful feeling that gave me a lot of power, peace and self-confidence. I realized that this connection means everything to me and is stronger than anything else around me and within me. I understood that thanks to this connection, I'm alive and I am developing. Then I heard inner voice telling me: "That connection is a priority to pay attention for. Everything else is secondary".

(Third part)

My discomfort, fatigue, anxiety and uncertainty began to disappear. I was in tranquility state. Around me, 100 people were clapping and singing, the Chanyang Team was shouting and beating the drum, but what I could only hear was True Mother's heartbeat... boom, boom and boom. I was surrounded by love. My spirit was healed, my mind got calmed, and my body regenerated during the Chanyang Yeoksa session. I did not hear any other noise. Everything was like a peaceful music. I am so grateful to experience the healing power of being connected to True Mother. It is a new kind of zero point for me, so different from the one I had experienced by learning from True Father. This kind of reset it was returning to origin, returning to who I am, returning to the connection. I was immersed in love. Thank you, True Mother, for this CheonBo providence.

Through the words of President Moon, I could understand, that our Heavenly Parent sacrificed His most beloved Son, True Father and His most beloved daughter, True Mother for the sake of our salvation. The children He loved the most, God sacrificed for our sake. This touched me more, as I can express. True Parents went to hell to save us. I had the experience that this is the first time that I understood True Parents. I never understood before. Our True Parents sacrificed completely and we can receive the Blessing today, so easy. This moved me more as words can express. Thank You Heavenly Parent, Thank You True Parents.

I attended Chanyang sessions many times before, but when I was asked to join the Chanyang Team I wasn't really sure if I wanted to, but in the end, I decided to join to offer my gratitude to True Parents and Heavenly Parent. It was an amazing experience! I was really thankful to those who joined the Chanyang Team as well! A lot of people who joined the team didn't know exactly what the Chanyang is before the workshop, didn't even know the lyrics and I really admired their motivation to join anyways. They really practiced to learn the lyrics, to play the drums well, show the cards, play the piano. I could see some people struggling, but again they just kept going and I was really moved by it. What was beautiful is that we could really work as a team and we all invested together. Even though it was only a few days that we practiced together, I feel like thanks to this experience we could really build deeper relationships and share good memories. Sometimes I caught myself thinking that I do Chanyang well and I was focusing on myself, but really without others I couldn't do it. I was really ashamed because of that feeling. So, at our first official Chanyang session when I switched with the other main vocal, I just cried, I felt so sorry for my shortcomings. The other reason I cried was when I got ansu on my head by one of the CheonBo branch staff member. I didn't expect that they would also do ansu to the chanyang team members.

(Second part)

I felt so much grace and forgiveness from God at that time. It was my first time ever to cry while doing ansu. After the whole session I was again in tears when I went to the Cheonshim won prayer room, because of everything I mentioned above. And also, I could really feel that I could offer something to True Parents, something substantial. After the Chanyang session during the Ancestors Liberation ceremony I could feel warmth on my hands and on my knees and I believe that this warmth was coming from my ancestors. A lot of thanks to everyone who contributed to the event and for the Cheonbo Branch Team to come to Poland and give us so many blessings, but most importantly thanks to our True Parents to whom we can have such wholesome and meaningful experiences in our lives! After the CheonBo event

I left the Glanów Training centre together with other six people, and I could feel how the spirit world is working. We could catch our train one minute before its departure, and in the train, I gave a Divine Principle introduction to a stranger, a passenger (who is an atheist) that was sitting next to me. We had discussion about different topics and by the end he said he can't really disagree with the presentation and he is interested in visiting the witnessing centre in Warsaw. I think this really happened thanks to our investment, but also, I truly feel that he was prepared to receive a Divine Principle lecture! So, I'm truly amazed by the spirit world, but also, I believe this is a testimony to a phrase I heard on STF Europe which is that 'investment is never wasted'.

It was my first time being in the Chanyang Team. And I had already been thinking about this (joining to chanyang team) for quite some time. And I thought how I want to start fulfilling my dreams one by one, and then Wika (responsible to collect chanyang team) messaged me. Shortly after, so I thank you Wika for writing to me in the right time about the exact opportunity. I really wanted to have a spiritual experience that I could share later, but that wasn't the case, at least maybe not yet. And while there wasn't anything of the sort, I did have a very touching moment. Even though there were so many people, at one point I felt very lonely. So, I went to the Holy Ground to talk to God, but I did only little bit, because he had already sent someone there. I saw somebody was standing there (in Holy Ground) but I decided to do what I came for anyway. And then I started to cry very loudly, at that moment that person embraced me and asked if everything is okay.

(Second part)

We talked for a bit, I wasn't too honest with that person and said I was just feeling emotional after the Chanyang practice. So later on, next time when we met, I decided to be honest (to that person) and said it was because I was feeling lonely and then something even more unexpected happened, that person said, she went there because of that exact same reason. We were practically strangers before, and didn't really talk to each other, but it changed everything. So, it occurred to me that one vulnerable moment with someone is able break so many barriers. I met amazing people who created the atmosphere, space where our prejudice towards others disappeared. Everyone was so loving and accepting each other's shortcomings and you could truly feel the investment they put.

As a person with a lot of theory, knowledge and little experience, it was a very precious time. Thank you, Heavenly Parent, True Parents and everyone!!

It was my first time to experience Chanyang Yeoksa session. At first, I thought that I wouldn't be able to do it because I don't know the language well. But I was afraid not to make mistakes and break anything, because I already have such a bitter experience. But the more we practiced, the more confidence I gained. Thank you very much Barnaba, (CheonBo Branch Training Coordinator) who tirelessly repeated that we are doing good and everything is going well. Therefore, I believed in it and tried to improve my abilities every time. The Chanyang Team was also very positive and kind. We supported each other and gradually we became closer. I am very glad to get to know everyone better. I am glad that I had such an experience. I hope that in the future we will still work together and I be able to give back love.

Thank you beloved True Parents!
