

A nighttime photograph of a cityscape, likely in the Middle East, featuring a prominent mosque with a tall, illuminated minaret and a large blue dome. The city buildings are lit up, and their lights are reflected in a body of water in the foreground. In the background, rugged mountains are visible under a twilight sky. The overall scene is vibrant and scenic.

Our Witnessing Director in Israel is holding weekly meetings with HTM members, reading and sharing about True Father's autobiography, as well as meeting them in person.

Ultimately, I was imprisoned once again. All I did was work to reestablish the morality of America and restore it to be a country in line with God's will, but I was accused of not paying my taxes. I was well past my sixtieth birthday by this time.

During the first year I was in America, money received as donations from around the world was placed in a bank account in New York in my name, held in trust for the church, a practice common in some denominations. The funds that were in this account for three years produced interest income, and I was indicted on the charge of not paying taxes on about $7,500. Normally a fine would be charged, but I was imprisoned in the federal correctional institution in Danbury, Connecticut, on July 20, 1984.
