

FFWPU UK: World Interfaith Harmony Week - Building Bridges of Peace

Michael Balcomb
January 21, 2025

World Interfaith Harmony Week inspires unity across faiths, fostering dialogue and understanding to build a more peaceful and harmonious global community.

World Interfaith Harmony Week, celebrated annually in the first week of February, serves as a powerful reminder of the importance of mutual understanding and collaboration among different faiths. This United Nations initiative encourages communities worldwide to focus on shared values, fostering dialogue and building bridges of peace.

In the UK, various interfaith organisations and religious communities actively participate in events, discussions, and activities that promote unity. These initiatives aim to address common challenges, break down stereotypes, and create a platform for meaningful exchanges.

The Universal Peace Federation (UPF) is marking the week with a special event titled "Pathways to Peace", taking place on Tuesday, 28th January 2025, from 6:00 PM at Lancaster Gate in London.

This gathering will bring together speakers from diverse faiths and backgrounds to share insights and practical solutions for achieving peace. For more details and to join, visit the event page here: Pathways to Peace - UPF UK.

The Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (FFWPU) strongly supports the ethos of World Interfaith Harmony Week. As a faith-based organisation, FFWPU emphasises the need for universal respect and love as a foundation for world peace. This week provides a special opportunity to reflect on how we can contribute to a more harmonious world by embracing diversity and celebrating shared values.

Let us take this upcoming week to strengthen our commitment to peace and understanding, inspired by the vision of unity that transcends barriers. Together, we can create a brighter, more harmonious future for all.
