

FFWPU UK: Beautiful Testimony About Jesus From Our Sister Françoise Murphy

Michael Balcomb
January 30, 2025

Hear about a recent experience our sister had, on the topic of 'Please Don't Make Jesus Suffer Anymore'...

'True Mother started her Christmas Message by saying "I am here today to liberate Jesus...Ignorance about Jesus makes him weep. Please don't make Jesus suffer anymore. We must all change. I am telling all of you the truth of the providence so that today can be the day of Jesus' liberation.... Christians have never understood Jesus's essence".

These words of True Mother resonated deep in my heart and reminded me of a powerful experience I had earlier in October.

I was attending the funeral of a Mrs. Figueiredo, a dear elderly woman who, together with her daughter Annette, had donated and planted a fig tree in our Peace Garden in Watford to thank the NHS for their support during Covid19. Annette shared how much this little tree had meant to her mother.

Their whole family were devout Catholics and Annette's brother is a priest who often travels to the Vatican. Father Figueiredo officiated at their mother's funeral.

On the day of the funeral Holy Rood RC Church was packed. At least 10 more priests were in attendance.

During the Service, Father Figueiredo read a letter of condolences he had received from the Pope. The letter praised Father Figueiredo's mother and family for their devotion to the Catholic Church.

When it was time for the Holy Communion, I wondered if I should go and receive it. I prayed and asked Jesus. I felt that Jesus was saying that it was okay to do so. I went to the altar, received the holy communion and returned to my seat.

I sat down and suddenly burst into tears. I was overwhelmed and could not control my tears. I could not stop myself from sobbing and realised that these were not my tears. Someone was crying through me. Who was it? Jesus came to my mind. "Is it you Jesus?" I asked. As the tears continued to flow, I felt that - yes it was Jesus. I continued to cry until Father Figueiredo's voice brought me back to reality. Everybody was standing up around me. I didn't want to attract attention, so I quickly dried my tears and stood up. But I was bewildered.

What had happened to me? Why was Jesus crying through me?

When I heard True Mother's Christmas Message, I could finally understand why Jesus was crying (through me).

True Mother said, "I am here today to liberate Jesus...Ignorance about Jesus makes him weep. Please don't make Jesus suffer anymore."

Thank you.'

Françoise Murphy