OSDP National Broadcast -- Saturday, April 21, 2012

Michael Jenkins
April 2, 2012

Dear ACLC Pastor,

The national leadership of the ACLC is pleased to invite you, your pastoral team and the lay leadership of your church to join us on Saturday, April 21st (time – local adjustment), 9 AM - 5 PM EST for a Kingdom Building Convocation that will be a blessing for your elders and members of your church. Pastors will be gathering at the same time around the country for a national broadcast, which will be simultaneously transmitted in all fifty states. Through this high-quality broadcast, thousands of pastors will be able to gather in their localities while sharing with other pastors across the nation in a praise, worship and teaching session of the Word of God.

The power of the Holy Spirit has moved and 5,000 have already attended this magnificent experience. You will experience an impartation of spiritual knowledge as we live out the Apostle Paul's call in Romans 12:2: "... be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." This national convocation will present the Original Substance of the Divine Principles through a sharing of biblical passages.

We promise that new insights will be revealed in the Scriptures that will take your preaching and teaching to an all-time high, as well as bring about a renewed sense of commitment and dedication to your ministry and service to God, your families and all humanity.

One local pastor, Rev. Vandy Kennedy, stated: "I'm profoundly touched by the spirit of Jesus in this conference and how He has revealed new wine in this teaching. It has blessed my ministry!" Pastor T.L. Barrett of Chicago shared his reflection on the OSDP: "This experience is so uplifting, both in spirit and truth. My wife and I and my church family have been abundantly blessed by the ACLC Kingdom Building Convocation. All pastors should experience this." Bishop Sulanch Grant Lewis of New York said, "The teaching that pastors receive in this program will allow them to take their ministry to a new level under an anointing of Jesus."

We ask that you contact your local ACLC leadership to register for this ground-breaking teaching experience, as we join from north to south and east to west in this national simultaneous broadcast.

Sincerely,
