	-How to link to talk	Many of us have had an experience where we notice God working through someone in our lives, often unexpected. We may choose to call it something else, like synchronicity; but either way, most of us have experienced it in some form. The funny thing is, that many of us are so busy chasing our ideas of what we want, that we carelessly miss many of the opportunities to recognize what already exists. Is it possible to fine-tune our ability to recognize the way God is working in our lives? Wouldn't it make life a lot more simple? Reverend Sun Myung Moon inspires us to seek a direct relationship with God, "Once our spiritual body can receive the vibration of God's love, our whole self will resound with it. Our entire physical body will respond to God's stimuli. That would be the total satisfaction of love. Nothing could be more desired by anyone." So why has it been so hard for many of us to find and maintain this type of spiritual vibration? Well, the Divine Principle does go into the root causes of human conflict; but even when we understand these topics, we still need each other's support. Imagine then, being part of a community where we are able to support each other's spiritual development by seeing God in each other!		5:00
