

UN International Day of Peace in Haiti

Sang Suek Kim
September 21, 2015

By UPF Haiti, Port au Prince: On September 21, 2015 UPF-Haiti celebrated UN International Day of Peace at Haiti Headquarters with 105 participants. It include a program to teach the local leaders and new ambassadors for peace in how to live public lives in order to restore the community.

The theme of the program was the essential need for local leaders to become involved politically, economically or socially in order to achieve sustainable human development and shape the life of their population and the future generation.

Were invited the Political-Administrative authorities, NGOs, members of the Coalition for the Promotion of Peace, Ambassadors for Peace.

Our aim was to let the participants recognize the importance of God and his position as the master and the way in doing our best to bring about peace in the nation, in the region and the world.

The program continued with 20 New Ambassadors for Peace receiving their certificate. At the end every one joined each other to sing the song of Peace.

