The Proclamation of True Children's Day October 1, 1960, Former Headquarters Church, Cheongpa-dong, Seoul

True Parents proclaimed Children's Day on October 1, 1960, at the former headquarters church in Cheongpa-dong, Seoul, during an event called the Thanksgiving worship service, for which twelve types of grain had been neatly displayed. Father announced, "The Thanksgiving we are celebrating will become a holiday that God has desired for six-thousand years, ever since the creation of man." He also said, "It is the season of children, a season of fruition." True Parents added the word "true" to the names of the four major holy days in 1994.
