Clement P. Singh, the leader of Unification Church of India came to Korea on July 13. Rev. Singh, Indian missionary who had been witnessed by the German missionary to India Heiner Pause, arrived in Japan on June 30 and stayed there for two weeks.

During his one week long stay in Seoul, he discussed about the mission in India with Headquarters staff, and also visited Chung Pyung Lake Training Center.

On July 16 after the Sunday service he addressed to the Seoul family at the Main Church and reported about the Indian Family.

Rev. Singh returned to India by Korean Air Lines on July 20. We pray for his safety and success.
