November's 7-day Divine Principle retreat at the International Peace Education Center (IPEC) provided its two participants with unique insights into the teachings and mission of True Parents.

Pastor Joel Barnaby of the Greater Philadelphia Church expressed a real calling and desire to help convey True Parents' message. And Klara Baimukhanova, who recently moved to the United States from Russia, described the workshop as God's direct answer to her prayers.

Whether you're in need of inspiration or of answers, you can find both of these at one of the monthly retreats and seminars regularly offered at IPEC. Be sure to visit the website here, or click on the button below to learn more and to register.
