Hello all

Hope you are well. Thank you for all your investment for God's providence and our community

This is short notice, and I am sure you are busy, but just wanted to reach out to you in case you, or someone you know, might be interested.

Tomorrow a 7-Day workshop will begin. We have just one guest coming.

The focus will be on educating our home-church/Blessing contacts.

The schedule is quite flexible and I will know more details when I meet with the one guest. But, the basic plan is to focus on how to introduce our movement on Wed and Thursday, go for an outing on Friday, then on Saturday, Sunday and Monday to go through the new DP Home-study course - to learn it, how to facilitate it, and to look for ways to improve it.

The basic daily study schedule is from 8 am to noon, and then from 2:30 pm until dinner.

If you know of anyone who would be interested, let me know. If you don't eat meals, we would only charge for the cost of printing the study course (maybe $20)

God Bless You!
