

Young Hwi Kim Joins the Unification Movement

Jin Hun Yong
April 20, 1955

Young Hwi Kim and Dae Hwa Chung at their Holy Marriage Blessing

Rev. Young Hwi Kim (b. 1928), who with his wife were one of the original three couples engaged by True Parents prior to their own Holy Wedding, joined the Unification movement on April 20, 1955.

He had studied electrical engineering at Seoul National University and joined the first class of Korea's Special Air Force Academy in 1953. He subsequently served the Unification movement in various leadership positions over the last sixty years.

Following Rev. Hyo Won Eu's passing in 1970, he became the second president of the Korean Unification movement.

He was the lecturer at the first Divine Principle workshop in the United States overseen by True Parents and author of The Divine Principle Study Guide, Part 1. He served as a regional leader representing True Parents in several European countries and as their envoy to the United Kingdom.

In 2013, Rev. Kim represented True Mother in a five-city U.S. revival tour. He also served as director of the Cheon Seong Gyeong project in Korea.