

The War of Identities in America

We are BOUGHT with a PRICE!

My son, be attentive to my wisdom; incline your ear to my understanding, that you may keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge. For the lips of a forbidden woman drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil, but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps follow the path to Sheol; she does not ponder the path of life; her ways wander, and she does not know it. Proverbs 5:1-6

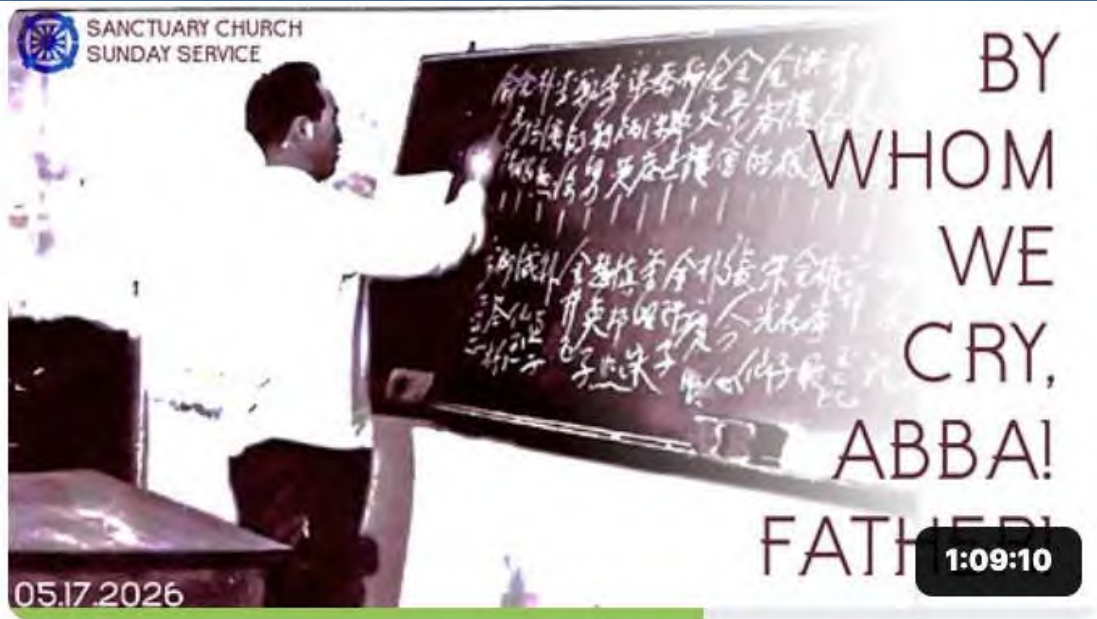

In order for you to belong to God's Kingdom, you need to offer Him everything you have: your assets representing the Old Testament, your children representing the New Testament and even yourselves before. Let Him choose to have ownership over you and let Him tell you, "Your family, belongings and children are mine," and then receive His acknowledgment that indeed they are. Next, He can claim "I have no more need of them!" and bequeath them all back to you through the True Parents.

Then your right of ownership over the spiritual and physical worlds can be determined, not the right of ownership of love, but the right of ownership over all things. Just as everything fell into fallen ownership through fallen love, the right of ownership over everything will be determined through original love. SMM, 121-254, 1982.10.27

Hello,

Shigeru Tashiro started his heartfelt sermon by speaking about how, at the time of his crowning as King of Israel, Solomon asked God for wisdom. Despite this God-given wisdom, Satan invaded him due to his marriage to hundreds of foreign wives. As described in 1 Kings 11:1-6, he began to worship other gods. He "did what was evil in the sight of the LORD." This resulted in Israel becoming a divided Kingdom.

Shigeru showed a map of 338,000 IP addresses that downloaded child pornography during a 6 month period in the U.S. Sadly this leads to abuse of real children. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) reports approximately 3 to 4 million maltreatment referrals each year, resulting in about 550,000 to 600,000 confirmed child victims each year.

The average age of exposure to pornography is 12 years old, with some as young as age 8. Some parents are so clueless that they encourage pornography as a way to stay abstinent.

Porn affects the ability to feel joy. It dulls empathy for others, who are viewed as objects to be used. It short-circuits the connection to the prefrontal cortex, affecting the ability to make rational decisions.

No one wakes up wanting to be a pedophile, but prolonged exposure to pornography leads many to that path. One study found that 95% of college students reported having sexually-deviant fantasies. More than half (74%) of college students reported engaging in at least one unrestricted, dominant, submissive, or deviant sexual activity such as public exposure, forced sex, etc.

We have not honored the God of the Bible in our nation.

Abusers look for victims who don't have fathers in their homes or who have weak fathers, who let their scantily dressed daughters go out in public. Shigeru mentioned Lowell Ellanson's testimony where he spoke about how the man who abused him, a professor at a local college, started by dating his older sister. His abuser showed him his pornography collection and quoted Kinsey's false research, saying that adult-child sex was normal.

Predators make the victim feel that he is isolated, with no friends. Then they reward the victim for being willing to engage in sexual acts. Afterwards they blame the victim for tempting him.

Americans gave up prayer and the Bible in our schools. Students were taught that the God of the Bible was evil on non-existent.

As a youth Shigeru struggled with porn addiction, starting at age 11 or 12. He watched porn once or twice a day. He felt alone and a "complete waste." There were days when he felt there were demons on his shoulder whispering thoughts into his head. He began to feel that this was a fundamental part of who he was.

His journey to overcome that began when he heard the "No Longer Slaves" gospel song. He began to weep asking how could God love him? He was afraid to tell anyone, but he felt the Holy Spirit leading him to tell his mother about it. She told him that she loved him and was sorry he was being dominated by this.

God loves us the way we automatically love a newborn baby. We have to accept the love that God has for us the way a child accepts the love of their parent.

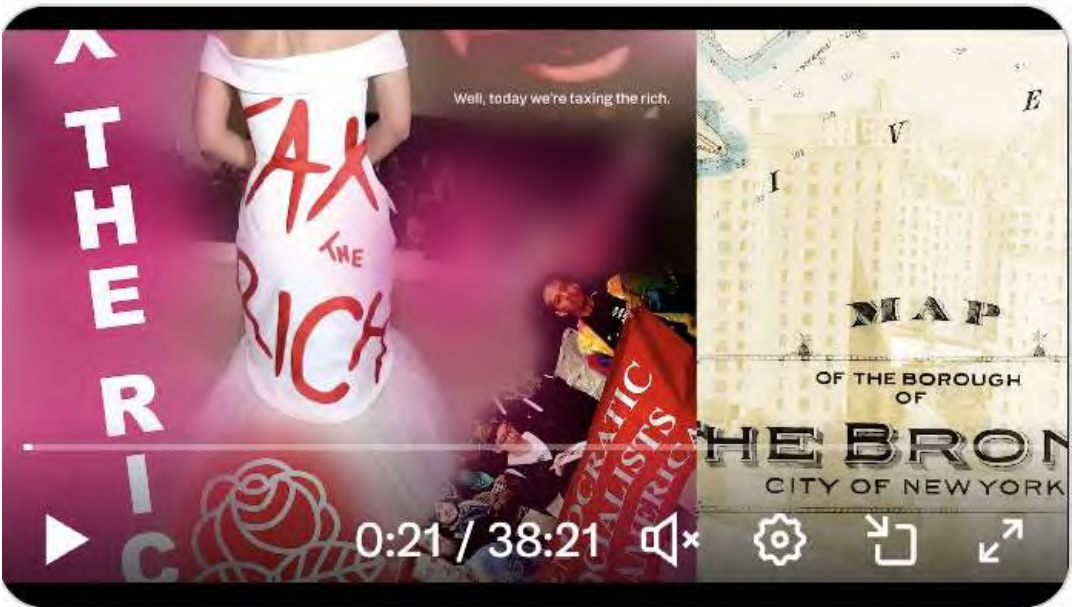

Satan wants us to keep secrets that keep us separate. He wants us to feel that we have no control over our thoughts and desires. Instead we should recite and believe that, "For God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control." 2 Timothy 1:7

We should realize that we are not alone. As it says in Psalm 23:4, "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me."

When Satan lies to us, saying that his way of sexual immorality is what's best for us, we should recite and believe 1 Corinthians 6:19-20, which says the following:

Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

When Satan says to trust him, instead we should recite Proverbs 3:5-8, which says: Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment[c] to your bones.

When Satan says that you are alone and that you belong to him, recite Romans 8:14-15: For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!"

We are nor fatherless. We are loved. We were bought at a great price, by the sacrifice of Christ. God is our father. That is a clear identity. He is not just a bystander. God is OUR FATHER. We have to be clear about His Identity and our identity as His child. If we aren't clear about that, Satan will gladly fill that hole.

We have to turn to God every single day. We must not be complacent. We are talking about this not out of fear, but out of love. Start your day by picking up your Bible. We are bought with a price.

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard
